

Descriptions of Speakers

Armin Schwarzbach, MD, PhD - international speaker and leader in clinical Lyme treatment and diagnostics. He is specialized in laboratory medicine and serves on several international boards. He will present on what practitioners need to know for Lyme treatment and testing in Europe.

Herbert Rixecker, MD, DDS - Specialist in oral and maxillofacial surgery. He will present fascinating findings on the connection between oral infections with pathogens such as borrelia burgdorferi and patient health.

Katharina Deutsch, MD - Integrative physician with a long standing practice in the Netherlands. She has been working with patients with Lyme and tick-borne illness for many years. Her presentation will highlight combination therapy using antibiotics in combination with various herbal methods, supplements and diet.

Marlene Kunold, ND - International speaker and Naturopathic physician. She brings a wealth of practical information to the field of tick-borne illness. She has spoken all over the world educating physicians on mitochondrial dysfunction, tick-borne illness and vaccination dangers.

Susan McCamish, CTN, CNC - Board Certified Traditional Naturopath with the AMNA and Herbalist, international speaker and formulator of the Beyond Balance herbal formulas being widely used in the United States, Canada and being introduced in Europe. She will present a holistic approach to Lyme and confections.